You will not only find new friends, acquaintances and business partners, but also an interesting and varied program of events:

Of topical interest

Monthly talks and discussions with experienced, high-ranking speakers on a range of cultural, academic, political and economic topics.

Entertaining

Concerts, theatre and cabaret evenings.

Edifying

A spring cocktail with a poetry reading or a musical Intermezzo in a sophisticated ambiance.

Fun

Summer festival in the nearby vineyards, boat trips, sports events etc.

OUR PURPOSE

The German International Club in Geneva was founded on September 15, 1992. The purpose of the Club is to foster relations amongst the Club members and with institutions, especially in German-speaking countries. The Club organizes events of a cultural, economic and social nature in order to promote the interest and understanding of the Club members for cultural, political and social life in German-speaking countries. German is the language of communication. The Club has no political or religious ties.

MEMBERS

The Club currently has 350 members. The members come from the following countries: Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Holland, Switzerland. and USA. Most members live in Geneva or around Lake Geneva.
